Breaking News:

—When you hear someone disparaging today's youth, be sure to tell them about Molalla High's student-driven "Share the Love" that raises money for families in the area facing devastating medical crises. This year records were shattered once again when it was announced that nearly $148,000 was brought in during the month of February to help families chosen by a committee of students. This program has a profound impact on the students and the community. Last year was $90,000.
